GENERAL DECLINES

Railroad List Down With Trading Almost Wholly Professional.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The stock market opened at almost general declines, the two exceptions being Amalagamated and Anaconda. Reading and Missouri and Kansas declined % and Baltimore and Ohio, Union Pacific $\frac{1}{2}$. Steel pre-and Chio, Union Pacific 12. Steel preferred lost 1½.

The market followed along the lines of the reaction in the last hour yesterday, with traders selling out stock they bought at higher levels and forcing moderate declines all around the room. Outside of this liquidation, the trading was without feature, except for an advance in sugar refining, which opened at an advance of ½ per cent. The failroad list generally declined from ½ to a little over a point. At the end of the first hour the market was quiet, and trading almost wholly professional.

Government bonds unchanged. Railroad and other loonds steady.

The market closed weak at about the lowest prices of the day.
